October League meetings to focus on carbon emissions, environment

Topics for October League of Women Voters of Central New Mexico unit meetings will focus on carbon emissions and the environment.

The following are units, topics and speakers.

Luncheon Unit Meeting: Oct. 14, 11:45 a.m., Airport Grand Hotel

Topic & Speaker: "Petition to cap carbon emissions in New Mexico," Mariel Nanasi, a civil rights attorney and Senior Policy Advisor at New Energy Economy. The LWVNM is a co-petitioner. See <http://newenergyeconomy.org>.

The cost of the luncheon is $17, payable at the door. Reservations must be called into the League office at 884-8441 by Tuesday, Oct. 12 at 9 a.m.

Evening Unit, Oct. 12, 6 p.m., Erna Fergusson Library, 3700 San Mateo Blvd. NE, Albuquerque

Topic & Speaker: "Youth Perspective on Climate Change," Akilah Sanders-Reed, Albuquerque Academy student

Midtown Unit, Oct. 18, 1:30 p.m., Manzano del Sol, Hobby Room, 5201 Roma NE

Topic & Speaker: "Low Carbon Diet: Lose 5,000 pounds of carbon by identifying your carbon footprint, Sallie McCarthy Northeast Heights Unit, Oct. 25, 10 a.m. La Vida Llena Card Room, 10501 Lagrima de Oro Road, NE.

Topic & Speaker: "New Energy Economy," Oriana Sandoval, Policy & Advocacy Program Manager

Editor's Note: The Sandoval Unit has been temporarily disbanded until the board of directors gauges interest from members. The unit has been poorly attended over the past year.

Cut Your Carbon Rally set for Oct. 10

Cutting our carbon is critical if we are to successfully reduce the CO₂ emissions in the atmosphere to 350 ppm. Join us on Sunday, Oct. 10 from noon to 2 p.m. at a "Cut Your Carbon Rally" at the Albuquerque Academy. The rally is free, but we encourage you to register online at <http://www.cutcarbonrallynm.org/> so we can estimate the number of people attending.

The League of Women Voters of New Mexico is supporting this event, part of a much larger effort around the world, with over 2,000 events planned in over 140 countries. <http://www.350.org>.

water, and energy

All League members are invited to all unit meetings, committee and board meetings.

The Voter is published on partially-recycled paper each month by the League of Women Voters of Central New Mexico.

Renewal letters in mail

Renewal letters were sent out mid-September to all League members. Please respond to your dues letter as soon as you can. This will help save money on follow-up reminders. The League appreciates your renewal and looks forward to another great year of working together to keep our New Mexican citizens informed.

Being placed in the renewal letter is a section asking if members prefer an email or a paper copy of the Voter. All members need to do is a check in the correct box for their preference. We originally planned on calling all members to find out their preferences. However, we decided to include the question in the renewal letter since they were going out in September anyway.

Presidents' Corner

As the election gets nearer, LWVCNM is doing more voter education and voter services. Jan testified at the Albuquerque City Council meeting on the continuation on the moratorium on impact fees, giving the League's position that those who benefit should pay and that public policy should not be based on "mights" and "maybes," but on hard data.
The Council voted 7 to 2 to continue the moratorium, but for only six months. Jan was quoted in an Albuquerque Journal story on the meeting.

LWVCNM participated in the Volunteer and Resource Fair at the New Mexico Conference on Aging. Thanks to Carolyn Lindberg and Andrea Targhetta for helping to staff the table. We passed out many Who's Whos and some membership forms.

LWVCNM got a call to participate in the Celebration of Women's Equality Day at Kirtland Air Base. Jan obtained Mary Wilson as their keynote speaker. Jan and Gayle Prinkey also staffed a table at the event with League information, Who's Who, membership information and forms and voter registration forms.

LWVCNM conducted voter registration at several additional events. They included: Women's Day at the State Fair on Sept. 22, Intel on Sept. 14 and the Corrales Fair on Sept. 25 and 26. Anyone interested in helping out at similar future events should call Gayle Prinkey at 872-3933. Thanks to Marge Swartz who coordinated with Gayle Prinkey.

The LWVNM state board meeting was held in Albuquerque Sep. 25 at the Manzano Mesa Center at 9:30 a.m. One topic to be discussed was the Santa Fe study on transparency – whether to propose making it a state concurrence or to propose a state study on government transparency. The Santa Fe County League did a major study on government transparency at the local and county level. The question is how best to apply this to the state level.

Drug Policy Study Committee

The Drug Policy Study Committee's study of the "Impact of Alcohol and Alcohol Abuse on Our Community" gained momentum in September through contact with members of the Albuquerque Partnership. At the League of Women Voters of Central New Mexico's general meeting -- a Town Hall Discussion of The Effects of Alcohol in Our Community -- was inspiring as city, county, state, neighborhood organizations and providers of treatment reviewed the growth and accomplishments of this Department of Health grant. Their process, struggles and successes have implications for the League's study.

The next Drug Policy Study Committee meeting is Thursday, Oct. 28 from 1-3 p.m. The location will be announced.

PAINSAFE initiative to be launched

A new educational initiative, called PAINSAFE (Pain Safety & Access For Everyone), will soon be launched. The website will be active around Oct. 1 and will provide up-to-date information and expert guidance from a multidisciplinary advisory committee for consumers and healthcare professionals to understand:

- * There are many different options for managing pain today.
- * Pain is best managed by a combination of treatment options.
- * No single treatment option is without risk including the decision to not treat pain.

The site will provide evidence-based information, practice-based tools and expert guidance focusing on safety and reducing the risks associated with various pain treatments. Talk to Drug Policy Study Committee (DPSC) members for more information.

Members take a retrospective look at League of Women Voters

Editor's Note: This year the LWVCNM celebrates its 60th anniversary. In February Judith Binder put together a retrospective program presented at all Unit meetings that consisted of members sharing in their own words memories of League. This is the fifth in a series of articles that includes some of those memories.

Sandra Browne

"What I enjoy most is that belonging to the League is in the context of belonging to a condensed book club. I'm with smart and involved individuals whose opinions you can respect and trust, and it's like a big family where everyone shares their knowledge and experiences. A terrific place to be.

"When I was President, I was impressed with the openness and objectivity that so many members brought to the group. The drug study committee, for instance took off in the early 1990s and was chaired by a 75-year-old former school teacher, Isobel Davis. I was amazed by her objectivity, the flat willingness to learn.

"One characteristic of League committees is the conscientious effort to educate and inform themselves, without condemnation of events over which no one has control, but are willing to study, to form an educated opinion, an open mindedness, and the desire to share what they learn.

"I felt my presidency was similar to being a traffic cop, a facilitator, because members are so 'with it, man.' There is no other organization that allows debate and it does not become vindictive."

League is never boring."
